Are you going to become like Hye-Ri ?!

Nooo ! We can't have you turn to the darkside !

...

Ji-Yoong seonbae ?

Yes, I'd like to know what kind of journalist he is.

Hmm...

It is sure that he is seen as a liability in our department.

He entered with almost perfect scores but his actual performance has been ....

He'll just go completely silent for days when he was sent out to monitor important events.

When going undercover, he'd get caught and so on ...

After all the troubles he has caused, he is kinda on an ignore list by some...

It's amazing that he hasn't been fired yet.

Do you know why he was given such a sensitive task as this ?

Honestly, I have absolutely no idea why the captain ... I mean the chief of our department gave him this job. But I think she kind of looks after him.

Oh, he is fairly good at getting us leads on stories.

That's probably the sole reason he hasn't been fired yet.

Although he is frustratingly indecisive, as a human being, you can't really dislike him. He looks after others very well.

And aren't mere him few favors ...

He frustrates you but you can't really hate him.

And I don't dislike him, either.

What was that just now ...

So, he is a good person.

Eh ... yes, I guess.

He is indecisive and does not excel at the job.

But it seems he at least has the passion in what he does.

This man ... is better for this job.

He's not the kind of person I want to use for this ...

Or just count on him ?
